China Travel of 'Marco Polo' in the New Era

In 2014, China's visa-free policy sparked global excitement for "China travel". Inspired by a reply letter from Chinese President Xi Jinping, who encouraged Italian students to become modern-day Marco Polos as cultural ambassadors between Italy and China, Marco, an Italian student, set out to witness modern China firsthand. Guided by panda Meng Xiang Dream, Marco embarked on a fantastic journey, observing how the Chinese people embrace modernization with vitality and confidence. It is a tale of exploration, wonder, and beautiful moments.
